‘Every student matters, every moment counts’

Home-School Partnership

We aim to be:

- An excellent trust school in all areas.
- An academy with a culture of high expectations and aspiration by both students and staff

In order to achieve this aim, school, home and student must all agree to work together.

Name of Student (please print name) _____

The school agrees to:

- Provide access to a broad and balanced curriculum
- Provide opportunities for each child to achieve full academic potential by regular setting and marking of appropriate tasks
- Set homework on a regular basis
- Monitor and encourage good attendance
- Provide a safe and positive learning environment
- Ensure the web site is a useful and modern form of communication
- Provide regular information on the progress of all students.
- Contact parents at the earliest appropriate moment should concerns or problems arise and deal with parental concerns promptly
- Provide opportunities to take part in a variety of extra-curricular activities
- Uphold the academy’s values of Respect, Equality and Determination
